2025 Closet to Pin Summary Report

Rare Milestone: The Hole-in-One

The most significant individual achievement of the year belongs to Lindsee Tanimoto, who recorded a Hole-in-One on the Fourth Hole at Teal Bend Golf Course.

The Closest to the Pin (CTP) contest winners across the 2025 season

Analysis of the weekly results across the 2025 season indicates that the Closest to the Pin (CTP) contest was not random; rather, there were several consistent winners who repeatedly placed in the top spots. While the contest was open to all participants, a core group of high-accuracy players dominated the leaderboards throughout the year:

- Dean Fukushima: One of the most frequent winners, placing in the CTP top three at least 10 times between March and October, including an incredibly precise shot of 0' 1" on September 18.
- Douglas Swann: Another highly consistent player, recording 10 placements in the contest across the season.
- Ron Sanui: Placed in the top tier 9 times, notably recording a 1' 2" shot on July 3 and a 3' 0" shot on April 3.
- Gregg Takeuchi: A regular on the board with 7 placements, including a season-best 4' 1" on May 15.
- Brian Hatano: Frequently landed near the pin, appearing in the winner lists 7 times.
- Edwin Lum: Recorded 7 top-tier finishes, including wins on March 6 and May 29.
- Wendell Sonoda: Also a 7-time winner/placer, highlighted by a 6' 1" shot on May 15 and a 9' 11" win on May 29.

Occasional High-Precision Winners

Several other players demonstrated significant skill with individual standout shots, even if they did not place as frequently as the leaders:

- Wes Yee: Landed within 1' 3" on July 17.
- Don Lai: Secured a very close 1' 7" shot on June 12.
- Evelyn Suzuki: Recorded a 1' 9" shot on July 3.
- Allen Valla: Won with a 2' 0" shot on July 31.
- Art Romero: Recorded a win at 2' 8" on June 19.
